

Amy Lim Hooi Leng

Software Developer

Summary

Being a mid-life career switcher with a strong passion towards IT, I have completed a 6-month full-time certification in Software Development Immersive accredited by Nanyang Technological University, with the aspiration to embark on my next career in software development. With over 20 years of experience managing clients' relationship and office administration, my strengths lie in a strong commitment, curiosity for new knowledge and information, and strong determination to achieve targeted results, and I believe it will be helpful in a team setup.
